FORBES HITS BACK AT ACCUSERS

Blames General Sawyer for Most of His Troubles.

ALSO RAPS ELIAS MORTIMER

Declares That Political Influence Had Been Exerted Both Inside and Outside Veterans' Bureau to Interfere With His Administration of the Bureau—Makes Sweeping Denial of Charges Against Him.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director, made a sweeping denial of accusations brought against him and his administration in the senate investigation of the veterans' bureau.

Forbes charged Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, personal physician to the late President Harding and President Coolidge, with being responsible for the major part of his troubles.

Forbes charged that "Sawyer at one time made a requisition to send into Ohio 20 barrels of whisky" from the Perryville (Md.) supply depot.

He said that Elias S. Mortimer had been described to him at the department of justice "as the social and professional bootlegger of Washington." Sawyer and Mortimer are among Forbes' chief accusers in the list of witnesses heard to date.

Political influences had been exerted both inside and outside the bureau to interfere with his administration of the bureau, Forbes asserted. This influence, he declared, came from senators and representatives in congress as well as through other channels.

Forbes defended the purchase of the Livermore (Cal.) and Excelsior Springs (Mo.) hospital sites that have been the subject of vigorous attack, and other hospital transactions that have been brought into question.

In connection with General Sawyer's activities in stopping the Perryville raid, Forbes said: "Sawyer at one time made a requisition to send into Ohio 20 barrels of whisky. He wanted to send 50 cases of this and 100 cases of that—tons of stuff. I've forgotten how much stuff he did want to send to the soldiers' home at Dayton. He was strong for putting the men in soldiers' homes when he couldn't get them in cantonment buildings."

"Did he fill these orders?" Forbes was asked. He replied: "No, I wouldn't permit them to be filled."

Sale of Supplies.
The sale of surplus supplies at Perryville, Md., claimed to be worth $3,000,000, to a Boston salvage concern for 20 cents on the dollar, likewise was defended as a good business deal in the face of the information he had at the time. Forbes vented his feelings before the committee toward certain contractors who unsuccessfully sought to purchase the Perryville supplies. He pointed out one of these, who was present in the committee room, with a sarcastic reference.

In his defense of the Livermore deal, Forbes denied ever having written or having knowledge of a letter purporting to have gone from him to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon strongly urging the purchase of the Livermore site at $150,000. Likewise he denied ever having seen the secretary's reply thereon.

Forbes defended his contract with Matthew O'Brien, San Francisco architect, who received $97,000 for preparing plans that were never used for a hospital at Livermore. He declared O'Brien came to him with endorsements from both senators and the entire house delegation from California. O'Brien's plans, he said, were rejected after he had left the bureau.

Forbes admitted that he had sent the late Charles F. Cramer to California to investigate and recommend a tuberculosis hospital site. He declared he knew nothing of a supposed $150,000 option secured at Cramer's instance for the Livermore site, nor had he ever seen Lucian B. Johnson, former owner of the property, until he came to Washington to testify in this hearing. The bureau bought this property for $105,000.

Forbes denied specifically that he had been asked by President Harding to resign, as charged by General Sawyer.

Two Injured In Fire.
Cleveland, Nov. 14.—Earl Staley, 35, of Canton, was overcome by smoke when fire destroyed the Wheeling and Lake Erie Y. M. C. A. here. Byron Yoder, 41, Canton, suffered injuries when he jumped from the second story of the burning building to the street below.

TREASON CHARGED

General Ludendorff and Adolph Hitler to Face Courtmartial.

Munich, Nov. 14.—Adolph Hitler, Bavarian fascist leader, once an Austrian paperhanger, and General Erich Ludendorff, greatest German military genius of the world war, are to be tried together before special "popular court" on a charge of treason. That was the announcement made in the offices of the Bavarian government. The special court will be organized under the provisions of the martial law. The penalty may be confinement in a fortress, imprisonment or death. General Ludendorff, now practically interned in his villa, had his telephone cut off. The general made a determined protest, declaring this action curtailing his freedom was a violation of the promises made him when he gave his word of honor. The general told the government that rather than submit to new indignities he would submit himself to arrest and confinement.

MINERS AGAINST PROPOSED MERGER

See Only Three Days a Week Because of Car Shortage.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 14.—Steps to insure steady employment for mine workers in the anthracite field were taken when the tri-district board of the United Mine Workers of America decided to oppose the proposed consolidation of the New York Central, the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Philadelphia and Reading railroads.

The anthracite miners will send protests to Washington in order that the interstate commerce commission may have the views of the hard coal workers before any definite action is taken on the proposal. It is the claim of the miners that if the roads are merged the anthracite fields will work only three days each week because of a shortage of cars.

Thomas Kennedy, president of District No. 7, presented the matter to the tri-district board. He said: "If the consolidation is permitted the mines will be idle three days each week. We know what happened in the soft coal region when cars were not available and we will not allow the same thing to happen here. We are opposed to this consolidation for self-preservation."

To Produce Pictures as Usual.

New York, Nov. 14.—Jesse L. Lasky, vice president of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, announced that he corporation will continue to produce motion pictures as usual. "Some people got the idea that we were not going to make any more pictures," Mr. Lasky said. "There will be no curtailment in production, but there will be a curtailment of waste."

Heroism of nurses and attendants of the Byberry hospital for mental diseases at Philadelphia prevented a catastrophe when fire destroyed a dormitory housing 134 insane women. The nurses led and carried all the patients to safety.

SALES TAX LOOMS AS SOLUTION

Financing of Soldier Bonus Discussed by Solons.

TAX CUTS ALSO FORESEEN

Charge Made by Opponents That the Purpose of Secretary Mellon in Putting Forward His Plan at This Time Was to Create a Situation Which Would Result in Killing the Bonus Measure.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The sales tax loomed up as the logical solution of the problem of tax reduction or a soldier bonus unfunded, as set forth by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in his letter to Representative Green of the ways and means committee.

Through adoption of the sales tax method of raising the money necessary to pay the cost of the bonus, it was pointed out at the capitol, both the benefits of the proposed tax cuts can be enjoyed and the obligation to the nation's defenders fulfilled.

Senator Reed Smoot, slated for the chairmanship of the finance committee, while agreeing in a large part with the Mellon tax reduction program but opposing action now on grounds of political inexpediency, had this to say on the availability of the sales tax to meet the situation:

"I am opposed to the bonus bill. I have voted against it before. I have stated, however, that I am so anxious to have a sales tax enacted into law that I am willing to vote for the bonus if provision is made for a sales tax to pay the cost. If the sales tax is once tried in United States, it will forever thereafter be a part of our revenue system, and expensive as a bonus bill may be, the establishment of a sales tax in the United States would more than compensate the taxpayers. I shall vote against a bonus bill unless a sales tax is agreed to as a part of the act that will raise sufficient funds to meet the bonus."

Criticize Mellon.

It was openly charged by senators and representatives that the purpose of Secretary Mellon in putting forward his plan at this time was to create a situation which would result in killing the bonus bill. The American Legion, through vice-chairman of its national legislative committee, John Thomas Taylor, made this charge openly in a letter to Representative Green.

Senator Copeland of New York, said: "I favor tax reductions, of course. We all want to relieve the people of just as much of this burden as possible. But we ought to think first of the soldier boys and see that justice is done to them."

It was asserted in authoritative quarters that Secretary Mellon's recommendations do not constitute the administration's program. President Coolidge not only will deal with tax reductions in his forthcoming message to congress, but he is expected to leave to the wisdom of congress the question of passing a bonus bill, if he does not actually recommend it himself.

Like his predecessor, however, Mr. Coolidge is believed certain to impress upon congress the necessity for providing means of financing the adjusted compensations for the fighting men. This will add further to the impetus given the sales tax method.

DONAHEY URGES PROBE

Requests Crabbe to Institute Inquiry in Jefferson County.

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Governor Donahey requested Attorney General Crabbe to institute a special grand jury investigation in Jefferson county as a result of complaints filed with the executive department charging Jefferson county and Steubenville authorities with failure to enforce the dry law. In his letter to Crabbe, the governor recited that one prohibition officer has been killed, another shot and the home of a third dynamited without there being any prosecutions in any of these cases. He also cited election irregularities and other instances of lax law enforcement. "If these allegations are true it would appear that the administration of justice in Jefferson county has practically broken down," said the governor.

Actress Divorced.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Marjorie Rambaugh, actress, obtained a divorce from Hugh Dillman McCaughey, her actor husband, in just three and a half minutes here. Her charge was desertion.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Boulay Attacks Herrick.

Cincinnati, Nov. 14.—L. A. Boulay, state highway director, sailed into Leon C. Herrick, his Republican predecessor, before the chamber of commerce forum meeting here. Boulay denounced Herrick as a "sniper." He also quoted attacks on his own work in newspapers up to the state, and termed them "deliberate lies." "Most of these fellows are afraid to come into my office and say these things to my face, because if they do they know I will go to the mat with them," he said.

Admits Tattooing Girl.

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—James E. Wild told for the first time his story of the alleged "branding" of Miss Marie Sanko, his ex-sweetheart. Wild is charged with cutting to wound. He said: "I tattooed her, but I did it with a needle, not a knife, and I did it at her request, not by force." According to Miss Sanko, Wild dragged her into a broom factory, stripped off her clothing, slashed his name on her body with a knife, and said, "Now you'll carry my mark to your grave."

Election Irregularities Alleged.

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 14.—Ex-Judge John Goldsberry, acting on behalf of 148 electors of Franklin, this county, filed protest of alleged irregularities in the recent election in a formal bill of complaint to the Ross county board of elections. Charges included failure to put ballots in the ballot box in the presence of voters; permitting individuals not connected with the board of election to work in the polling place; and failure to post election summary as required by law.

Charges Against Klan Quashed.

Portsmouth, O., Nov. 14.—On a motion made by attorneys for the 244 members of the Ku Klux Klan, who were arrested here Oct. 28 while on parade in defiance of a municipal ordinance, Stanley McCall, municipal court judge, quashed an affidavit charging the klansmen with annoying citizens and congregating in public places. The motion was sustained, it is said, because names were not included in the affidavit.

Truck Owner Held.

Elyria, O., Nov. 14.—Elmer Maloney, Black River township, is being held by Coroner Miles Perry. Maloney is said to have left an auto truck without lights on Lake road. The machine was run into by Dyle Tischer, Vermillion. His wife, Ethel Tischer, 21, was instantly killed.

Slain by Bandit.

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Richard F. Nagle, 45, retired business man of Columbus, was shot and killed between Los Angeles and Culver City, Cal., by two bandits. Edward Nagle, a brother and Culver City real estate man, formerly of Columbus, was slightly wounded.

Bank Robbed.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 14.—Three bandits bound and gagged the teller of the Elm street branch of the Dollar Savings and Trust company here and escaped with $2,000. The teller, James V. Williams, was alone in the building when the robbery occurred.

Injuries Prove Fatal.

Springfield, O., Nov. 14.—Oscar Lefew, 19, New Carlisle, died in a hospital here, of burns received Saturday night when a school bus he was driving was struck and demolished by a Big Four freight train at a crossing in this city.

Three bandits held up a cashier for the Ward Baking company in the vestibule of the company's Brooklyn plant and escaped with a payroll estimated to contain $17,500.

FRENCH TO SPRING ON FRANKFORT

May Cut Rail Lines Connecting Berlin and Munich.

TROOPS AWAIT WORD TO MOVE

Further Advance Into Germany to Be France's Answer to Berlin's Refusal to Permit Resumption of Allied Military Control in Germany—German Experts Studying New Reparations Plan—Developments.

Paris, Nov. 14.—A formidable concentration of men, munitions, tanks and airplanes on the Rhine and in the Ruhr awaits Premier Poincaré's command to spring on Frankfurt and then advance into Germany until the strategic railway lines connecting Berlin and Munich are cut.

This, according to semi-official statements, will be the French answer to Germany's refusal to permit a resumption of allied military control in Germany.

High diplomats believe it a logical continuation of the policy, beginning with the Ruhr, which is slowly but surely drawing France further and further into Germany until the day must come when the occupation of not only Munich, but the possibility of Berlin, will be a strategic necessity. The intransigent says Germany would be forced to submit within a week.

The reparations commission decided that it would, "as soon as possible," give an audience to German experts who have been studying a new reparations plan. This will probably be within 10 days. Louis Barthou, French chairman of the reparations commission, urged the naming of experts to study Germany's resources and capacity to pay.

STRESEMANN TO GO

General Von Seeckt to Be the Next Dictator of Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 14.—The appointment of General Hans Von Seeckt, commander-in-chief of the reichswehr, as dictator of Germany is expected to be the next development in Germany. President Ebert, it is said, is much disappointed in Chancellor Stresemann and considers the legal parliamentary dictatorship very much a failure. The president is credited with planning to give General Von Seeckt, practically unlimited powers to try to pull the German ship of state off the economic and political rocks. It is expected that Von Seeckt will name a directory of two or three men irrespective of political parties, to assist him. Stresemann's days in authority are now believed to be few.

Galli Curci to Quit Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Mme. Galli Curci has broken with the Chicago Opera company. The announcement was made officially by Lawrence Evans, the noted singer's manager. He explained that her contract with the company will be carried out for this season, but that will be the end. Next season Mme. Galli Curci expects to give all her talent to the Metropolitan Opera company of New York, Mr. Evans stated.

UNCLE SAM'S POSITION

No Interference With Return of Kaiser and Prince to Germany.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The United States will avoid interfering with the return to Germany of the former Kaiser Wilhelm or the former crown prince, it was learned authoritatively at the white house. President Coolidge, it was explained in his behalf, feels that any people have the right to maintain the kind of government it desires without interference from the United States. The United States, in the president's opinion, is in a position entirely different from the one occupied by the allies, who are parties to the treaty of Versailles.

Love Surmounts Prison Walls.

Washington, Nov. 14.—True love surmounted even prison walls when Frederick H. Ewers, 22, married Gladia I. Peyton, 19, who is serving a term of one year in the workhouse for forgery. The wedding was to have taken place last June, but when the girl was arrested the marriage was postponed while Ewers devoted all of his time in an effort to prove the innocence of his fiancée. Finally the girl pleaded guilty to two counts of forgery and the sentence followed. Losing his fight for the freedom of the girl he loved, Ewers then insisted that the marriage take place.

PINCHOT CALLS PARLEY

Would Prevent Extortion in Coal Prices, He Says.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 14.—Governor Pinchot called on the governors of 29 states using anthracite coal to meet with him here on Monday, Nov. 26, to discuss contemplated legislation by the next congress to prevent extortion in coal prices. He outlines no plan, but says he has a program for congressional legislation and state action outlined.

"We do not have to prove the existence of abuses in the anthracite industry," Governor Pinchot told the governors, "or of the crying injustice to consumers in extortionate prices."

The governor says that the coal operators have finally declined to "clean its own house of extortion," which he says "elementary common sense" should have led them to do. "They could, if they would, not only give the consumer a square deal, but free their industry from public condemnation," Governor Pinchot says of the operators, who have refused to accede to his request to shut off the supply of coal to dealers charging more than 1922 prices.

Cattle Roundup In New York Streets

New York, Nov. 14.—The great wide west never saw such a stampede and roundup as was witnessed in the canyons of Manhattan when 12 steers, destined for Tex Rickard's show, broke from their pens. Taxicabs of all colors and stripes, limousines and tugboats took part in the chase. Policemen and civilians vied with the cowboys for the roundup honors. The chase covered a wide area.

TORY DEFEAT SEEN

Tariff Reform Issue Rouses Liberal and Labor Parties.

London, Nov. 14.—Premier Baldwin signed the death warrant of the Conservative government when he announced the dissolution of parliament on Friday. This is the general opinion of unbiased political experts in London. The only argument the Tory leaders advanced in favor of an immediate election is the supposed unpreparedness of the Liberal and Labor parties to fight them on the tariff reform issue, but it is declared incontrovertibly that the Conservatives are equally unprepared. As disclosed, the polling will take place Dec. 6. It will then probably be found that the Liberal party, under Herbert Asquith, will have a working majority, perhaps by virtue of an understanding with the Labor party.

Fire Attacks Dairy Plant.

Toledo, Nov. 14.—Twelve girls were led to safety from a basement room in a fire at the Ohio Dairy company's plant. The fire started when an asphalt compound used in calking cork in a refrigerator room on the first floor ignited. Five thousand chickens were smothered to death in the fire. The total loss is estimated at $20,000.

Surprised by liquor bandits, five watchmen at the Gwynn Brook distillery, Baltimore county, Md., were overpowered and bound by raiders who then stole 133 barrels of whiskey from the warehouse.

Picturesque New Zealand.
New Zealand is a land of mountains, gorges, rivers and fjords. The higher peaks of the south island are eternally snow capped and the glaciers of its southern Alps rival those of Switzerland. The surrounding seas are too cold for corals. Among the mountains of the north island volcanic fires are still active and the geysers and hot springs are little less impressive than those of the Yellowstone park.

Egg-Eating Snakes.
A queer African species of snake, which lives on eggs, has a toothlike spike projecting downward from its backbone, just behind the head, which is tipped with enamel. When it swallows an egg the latter passes down the gullet until it encounters the spike, which breaks the shell. Thus no part of the fluid contents is lost, as would be the case if the snake were obliged to bite the egg with its mouth-fangs.

Hard Times.
Montagu Collet Norman, governor of the Bank of England, was talking at a dinner in Washington, about hard times.
"I heard a story the other day," he said, "about a slum landlord who was going around one morning collecting his rents. At a certain house a boy handed him half a crown."
"Half a crown!" said the landlord reproachfully. "Here you are, over five quid in arrears, and you only give me half a crown!"
"Oh, go on about your business," said the boy. "You wouldn't have got that if the old man hadn't been and sold the kitchen door."

An Age of Specialists.
"Tis an age of specialists," remarked Mr. Tenspot from his back porch. "Of concentration, so to speak. Even the vegetable kingdom seems to be aware of this tendency of the times."
His neighbors sent him an inquiring glance which he accepted as a signal to continue.
"At least my peach tree seems to be lavishing all its resourcefulness upon one peach."

Evidence Stork Had Traveled.
Julia had been over to see the neighbor's new baby and upon her return was asked how she liked it, to which she replied: "Well, mother, it is all right, only the stork must have been a long time on the way with it, for it certainly is awfully round."

Tough on Daddy.
Daddy was confined to the house with Spanish influenza, and mother was busy sterilizing the dishes which had come from the sick-room.
"Why do you do that?" asked four-year-old Donald.
"Because, dear, poor daddy has germs, and the germs get on the dishes. I boil them, and that kills all the horrid germs."
Donald turned this over in his mind for several minutes. Then: "Mother, why don't you boil daddy?"

Rival to Monte Carlo.
Helgoland, the little island in the North sea, seeks the laurels and income of Monte Carlo.
The island resort is about to build a gambling casino, which, it is hoped, will bring sufficient earnings to the local government to make all the island folks free from taxation. Just as the residents of Monaco, the principality where the Monte Carlo casino is located, are free from taxes.
This is to all intents and purposes a declaration of war by Germany against France, so far as getting the tourist gambling business of Europe is concerned.
Helgoland has always been a favorite resort, largely patronized because of its beach. Now, in addition, the local government plans to erect a casino which will draw a new and wealthier class to its shores.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HARTMAN THEATER

The first of the great metropolitan girl-and-music annuals to be seen in Columbus this season is the Greenwich Village Follies. The new fourth edition of this picturesque and refreshingly artistic revue will be on display at the Hartman theater Columbus for a single week starting Monday night, November 12. Last season it was conceded to be the revue hit of New York where it played for 32 weeks at the Shubert theater. For the past weeks it has been a soaring success at the Apollo theater, Chicago, and it comes to Columbus direct from that city in a special train of eight cars. Three of the Greenwich Village series have already exhibited in Columbus to enthusiastic audiences and this newest version is reputed to surpass all its predecessors in gaiety, wit, pictorial and melodic excellence.

The fine enthusiasm and youthful buoyancy which marks the deportment of the current "Follies" can be credited to the artistry and imaginative genius of its creator, John Murray Anderson. Anderson is said to have the best eye for color and grouping of any of our stage producers, a claim well substantiated in the present "Follies." A novel constructed and adroitly schemed revue is this "Follies," with song, dance and japey interlaced in a happy and fleetly moving picture.
It burlesques Balleff and Chauve Souris, goes back to the days of Tony Pastor for a comic bout with the illustrated songs of that period ascends to high art in a reproduction of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" and an interpretation of Oscar Wilde's "The Nightingale and the Rose," becomes precariously modern in a humorous sketch "Life Among the Advertisements," and all in all runs an amazingly long gamut of diversified entertainment.

Mr. Anderson has summoned an imposing list of players under his gay banner to compete in the "Follies." Prominent among them is Carl Randall, Karyl Norman, "The Creole Fashion Plate," Ula Sharon, George Rasely, John Sheehan, Dorothy Neville, Ethel Davis, Julia Silvers, Marjorie Peterson, George Christie, Louis and Frieda Berkoff, Fortunella and Cirillino, Clifton and DeRex and Chase and LaTour and the thirty famous artists' models.

The book of the "Follies" is by George V. Hobart, with contributions from George B. Kaufman and William K. Wells. The music is by Louis A. Hirsch and the lyrics by John Murray Anderson and Irving Caesar. Conspicuous among these last and well known are "Sixty Seconds Every Minute" and "Sweetheart Lane."

The Greenwich Village Follies is said to move with flawless pace and happy temp, flouting all the blueprints and traditions of the stage and providing ample recreation for the eye as well as regaling the ear.

Mail orders from out of town people will be given careful consideration if addressed to the Hartman boxoffice accompanied by check or money order

DIED OF BURNS

Mrs. Dwight Smith Passed Away at Chillicothe Hospital.

Mrs. Dwight Smith, aged 19, was horribly burned Monday morning at her home near South Bloomingville and died at the city hospital, Chillicothe, the same evening at 11:20 o'clock.

Mrs. Smith had arisen early to prepare breakfast and while frying eggs some of the grease spattered out of the pan and this set her garments on fire. Her husband, hearing her cries jumped out of bed and ran to her rescue. He grabbed her burning clothing and tore it off, but the fire had seared her body so badly that there was little hopes of saving her life. The deceased leaves a babe six weeks of age. Mrs. Smith was Miss Della Paxton before her marriage. Her husband was a former resident of this county. He is a son of Luther Smith, who lived on a farm near the Earnhart hill.

TEARS UP OLD MEXICAN TOWN FOR SILVER PAVING

Material Is Run Through Mills and Made to Yield Rich Returns in Metal.

Buildings and streets in the one time famous mining town of Catorce, Mexico, are being torn up and the material in them run through mills and made to yield rich returns in silver. There is also a revival of mining operations in a number of the old properties. For more than two centuries the mines of Catorce were the largest producers of silver in Mexico. The dumps of the old mines are rich in silver values. One of these dumps which is now being worked over is estimated to contain more than one million dollars silver, which may be obtained by modern processes of extraction.

The history of the Catorce mines dates into the legendary past. There is a vague story of fourteen robbers who used the mountain for a stronghold. The quaintness and inaccessibility of the ancient town has surrounded it with a halo not possessed by any other place in the republic. Like the two other of the famous trio of old Mexican silver mines, Guanajuato and Zacatecas, Catorce is situated in a cup in the mountains not unlike a funnel. The roof at one house is the patio of the next. There is no wheeled vehicle in the town. A long tunnel through the mountain serves as a highway for the bringing out of the ores, and through this tunnel there is a mule power tramway.

TO OPEN HOUSE OF MYSTERY

Owner of $5,000,000 San Jose Mansion Will Exhibit Strange Home.

The $5,000,000 House of Mystery, built at San Jose, Calif., by Mrs. Sarah Winchester, widow of William Wirt Winchester, multimillionaire and beneficiary of the millions of the Winchester Arms company, is to be thrown open to the world.

Its 240 rooms, connecting by secret panels and hidden entrances, will be shown—at a price—to all who apply.

For a dozen years after her husband's death Mrs. Winchester resided here in almost complete seclusion, surrounded by a few trusted Hindu servants and practicing the rites of a strange religious cult. She said the spirit of William Wirt Winchester told her to come to California and there to build a home in which she must remain secluded. So long as the clang of the hammer and rasp of the saw was heard about this place she would live, but when nothing was left to construct or change she would die.

Many sections were built, torn down and rebuilt under Mrs. Winchester's personal direction, with a total disregard of expense.

For two years after her death the place stood unoccupied, then was sold at auction. Although the estimated cost was $5,000,000, the house, 500 feet long and half as wide, with a seven-story tower in the middle, brought only $35,000. Each suite inside is furnished in a style of a different country or period.

WARNING ON 100,000,000 FAGS

Sweden Fights Cigarette Fire Peril After $2,000,000 Blaze.

The "two-million-dollar cigarette" is one of the main arguments advanced in the present nation-wide drive in Sweden to prevent fires through the careless throwing away of cigarettes, undertaken by the Fire Prevention society.

Some time ago a lighted cigarette, thrown carelessly down by a youth in a sawmill, started a fire which was not extinguished until nearly $2,000,000 worth of property had been destroyed. Other large fires have been started in the same way.

The Fire Prevention society suggested to the Swedish Tobacco monopoly, which controls the output of cigarettes in Sweden, to print the warning, "Kill your cigarette when you are through with it," upon every package. The executives of the monopoly immediately agreed.

According to estimates, the slogan will be printed on nearly 100,000,000 wrappers within a year.

RADIO USED TO CATCH FISH

English Vessels Call Other Ships When Shoal Is Large.

American fishermen off the Grand Banks and the Atlantic coast may find it profitable to emulate the example of their brother fishermen in England, who have equipped their vessels with radio. The purpose is to enable them to communicate with the shore or with sister trawlers whenever they discover a shoal of fish too large for their capacity. At a time when a remarkable shortage of fish is reported from the North sea, some thirty steam trawlers have been fitted with wireless apparatus.

It has been found that with the use of radio communication, huge hauls, which otherwise would certainly be missed, can be taken in a short time by vessels which are in constant communication with each other and with the shore.

AMUSEMENTS

William de Mille's latest Paramount production, "Only 38," had a highly successful premier at the Met theater last night.

Mrs. Stanley (Lois Wilson) a widow of thirty-eight, whose youth was extinguished by her hide-bound husband, on the latter's death decides to get as much joy out of life as possible and so encourages the attentions of Professor Giddings, played by Elliott Dexter. Her daughter, Lucy (May McAvoy) is in love with Sidney Johnson, a young college student. Instead of the emphasis being laid on the youthful love story, it is laid up on that of the mother. Her struggle for happiness is played against a background of opposition from her children. At length, yielding to the children's ideas, she renounces her youth and love. But the daughter's own love affair opens her eyes and paves the way to a happy conclusion for both.

The featured players in "Only 38" include May McAvoy, Lois Wilson, Elliott Dexter and George Fawcett. In the support are Robert Agnew, Jane Keckley, Lillian Leighton, and others. The story is full of heart interest and there is a clever mingling of pathos and comedy thruout. The love story of a woman who feels that she is old, played in contrast to the love story of her daughter, is most appealing. "Only 38" is a picture every fan can see with profit and complete enjoyment.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Harrison Weakley Passed Away at Home of His Daughter Tuesday.

Harrison Weakley died Tuesday morning at ten minutes past twelve o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George List, in Jackson township. The deceased had been seriously ill the past four months of heart trouble and the past four weeks was unable to leave his bed.

He was a Civil war veteran having served in company K, 17th O. V. I. He was born in Fairfield county, November 29, 1839 and was the son of Thomas and Mary Cook Weakley.

One son and two daughters survive. They are A. H. Weakley, of Kokomo, Indiana; Mrs. George List, of Jackson township and Mrs. Omer Marks, of Lancaster. Of his immediate family there is living one sister, Mrs. John Kemmerer, of Lancaster.

The funeral services will be held Thursday, November 15, at 2 o'clock at the Evangelical church at Stoutsville. Interment in Maple Hill cemetery.

HARTMAN THEATER

"The World's greatest show; Bigger and Brighter than ever," was a slogan adopted and made famous by America's greatest tent showman. It is one that can be truthfully and justly taken over by Wagenhals & Kemper for their production of "The Bat" which they present the week of November 19, at the Hartman theater, Columbus.

"The Bat" has earned the title of the world's greatest show by smashing every known record for a dramatic production on four continents and in seven different countries. It has been played with equal success in eleven languages and has delighted one president, two kings and five queens, along with plenty of other royalty mixed in with 9,000,000 persons who have seen this Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood masterpiece to date, with no signs of the play's popularity diminishing. It is "bigger" than ever because since it played over two years in New York, a year each in London and Chicago and a season each in Boston and Philadelphia, "The Bat" has shattered over 3,000 other records thruout the United states and Canada. It is "better" than ever for Wagenhals & Kemper are sending a special cast for this engagement. The cast coming to the Hartman is the one that will play New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Boston later this season for return engagement. It is "brighter" for the simple reason that a brand new production has been provided in view of metropolitan return engagements.

The cast includes five of the members of famous special "Big Cities" company with five other augmentations. The old members are Julia Stuart, Ursula Ellsworth, Charles Gott hold, Robert Ranous, Albert Lawrence Harold Heaton and Ben H. Roberts. This is now the most important organization dispensing the laughs, thrills and sensational mystery now made historic in the theater by "The Bat". One of the most astonishing features of the play's record is the popularity of this hit this present season. It seems to be increasing, rather than diminishing as was anticipated by the producers. In several instances "The Bat" has broken its own previous high records this season on return presentations; and in almost every instance has equalled the high marks set the first and second engagements played in various cities. In view of the productions from theatrical wisecracks that a mystery play could not survive a single year, this is even more amazing. "The Bat" has already piled up more profits and royalty than was ever dreamed of for one play prior to its appearance. And now it seems to have only begun an everlasting career. That its merit as an entertainment is unbounded is indicated by the delight with which it is viewed a second or third time. "Repeat" members of the jammed theaters are the most enthusiastic units of the record audiences.

What is a One-Cent Sale? It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price--then another item of the same kind for 1c. As an illustration: The standard price of Arbutus Complexion cream is 50c. You buy a jar at this price and by paying 1c more, or 51c you get two jars. Every article in this sale is a high-class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as we sell you every day at regular prices and have sold you for years.

A New Way of Advertising This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full-size package of high grade standard merchandise for 1c. It costs money to get customers. The loss taken on this sale will be well spent if the goods please you.

Felt Neglected.

Little Eva was invited out to dinner with her father and mother. Before starting, her parents made her understand that she must not speak unless spoken to. All went well at first, but after some time, no notice being taken of her, Eva began to get uneasy. Finally, the hostess, seeing that something was wrong, asked her what she would like next. "I would like to have you begin to ask me questions!" was the polite reply.

What Dropped.

The dining room of a very exclusive residential hotel. Dinner in full swing. Clatter of knives and forks and the usual buzz of conversation. Suddenly, a crash at one end of the room, a sound of falling dishes. An abrupt pause in the conversation, attention concentrated on the scene of the calamity. Then, suddenly, soaring above a rising murmur of inquiry, one clear voice with the desired information, "Squash, my dear, of all things!"

Alton Covell, 15, Marshfield, Ore., confessed murdering his stepmother, claiming he had been directed to commit the crime by his helplessly crippled uncle, Arthur Covell. The uncle is a nationally known astrologer. The boy said his uncle read the planets and ordered the murder.

Snakes' Changes of Skin.

It appears that snakes change their skins several times a year before reaching the adult state. The main reason why snakes cast their skins is to provide for increased growth. The skin of a snake does not grow with the growth of the body, as is the case with warm blooded creatures. So when it begins to get too tight it is discarded.

THE WONDER OF THE AGE

THE HOT BLAST AIR TIGHT FLORENCE

NO SMOKE! NO SOOT! NO DIRT! NO CLINKERS! EVERYTHING IS CONSUMED.

At the end of the season's use with soft coal, there will be no soot in the pipe or flue

The Zenith of Stove Perfection

The only jointless leg bottom and base with full radiation and large ash pan that is on the market! or has ever been made in the history of the stove industry.

The jointless leg bottom and base makes the stove air-tight below the grate, which is the only true fire keeping principle.

It will be as good a fire keeper twenty years hence as it is today.

The Hot Blast Air-Tight Florence will heat twice the space that can be heated by any other stove on earth at one-half the cost.

The only perfect floor heater that is or has ever been made.

All features are patented and no stove manufacturer, dealer or user can copy or use same until the expiration of the patent without incurring liability for an action for damages.

THE HOT BLAST AIR-TIGHT FLORENCE burns soft coal or slack and all the smoke and gases. No filling up of the stove, pipe or flue with soot. No dirt inside or outside the house. It will burn hard coal and all the gases which escape from the hard coal base burner. It will burn wood and sawdust, wet or dry. It will produce one-half less ashes than any other stove on earth with any kind of fuel and leave no clinkers or half consumed fuel.

Wanted It Understood.

In the bygone days when street car fares were 5 cents for grownups and 3 cents for children under 12, two small boys of 12 and 7 mounted the platform. The younger boy had been promised the 2 cents change from the dime they had for carfare. He handed the coin to the conductor, who did not immediately turn over the pennies. The anxious child then remarked politely but forcefully, "I'm worth only 3 cents."—Chicago Tribune.

Stymied at Lunch.

Golf is a game that has a special vocabulary of its own, and beginners are at first a little at sea with regard to the meaning of some of the terms. You are "stymied," for example, when your opponent's ball lies directly in the path your own ball must take in order to drop into the hole. The Tatler says:

A gentleman was playing on a certain links in Scotland when he turned to his caddy and said: "I say, caddy, why couldn't that fellow get his ball into the hole?"

"He was stymied, sir," was the reply.

"He was what?"

"He was stymied, sir," repeated the caddy.

"Oh, was he?" replied the other; "I thought he looked rather funny at lunch."—Youth's Companion.

London Lawyers Hard Hit.

"The worst legal year on record," is given as the London lawyer's opinion of the last twelvemonths and more barristers than ever are said to be looking for a livelihood elsewhere than in the courts. General hard times lead the potential plaintiffs and defendants to settle their differences without the assistance of wigs and gowns, or, if they cannot settle it, they let the difference lie.

In spite of a common and old opinion that money flies as naturally to a lawyer's pockets as steel filings do to a magnet, the "flowing fees" of the bar at all times direct themselves chiefly to certain larger and more notable pools.

The emoluments of the great majority of barristers would rouse no great envy even in normal times; when a slump comes (and the big pools must still be fed) the smaller receptacles are in danger of running dry, indeed.—Manchester Guardian.

NEW FIRM

Harold Rader and Glenn L. Myers
Form a Partnership.

Glenn L. Myers and Harold B. Rader have purchased the interest of P. F. Mooney in the firm of Myers & Mooney, funeral directors and dealers in musical instruments. The firm in the future will be known as Myers & Rader.

They will still continue to render an efficient service in funeral work and they also will sell the Edison phonograph.

Mr. Myers was reared at Mt. Sterling and at the present time he operates one of the largest funeral establishments in Columbus, being located at 23 West Goodale street.

Mr. Rader was reared at Fox post-office, near this city, and was employed by Mr. Myers in his Columbus office before the firm of Myers & Mooney was established in April of this year, since when he has been very active in the interest of the partnership. It is the aim of this institution to render valuable service.

Mr. Mooney will remain with Myers & Rader as salesman for musical instruments.

Hotel Stenographer

BY ROE FULKERSON

"Kelly," said the Hotel Stenographer, "you better walk down the hall to that big mirror, and give yourself the up-and-down."

"Smatter with me?" asked the House Detective.

"Your pants," replied the girl, "are as baggy at the knees that you look like you had squatted to jump over something. Your necktie has whiskers on it, and there are wrinkles in your coatsleeves."

"But clothes cost money, and I am trying to save. I am poor," replied Kelly.

"Kelly, nobody ever saw a tightwad who wasn't poor. There is something about a nickle-nurser, Kelly, that keeps him poor. He is so close with the present dime that the future dollar gets away from him."

"If you are poor and want to get rich, Kelly, you've got to put up a front. People flock to a prosperous person, just like morning glory vines reach out for a sunflower stalk to climb. If you want to get prosperous you've got to ooze prosperity from every pore and pimple, whether you have it or not."

"Ninety-nine people out a hundred are likely to take you at your own estimate of yourself. If you look like ready money they think you've got it and will trust you with more of it."

"Instead of looking like the first year of a boom town, you look like the last days of Pompeii. People collect every kind of antique, except, antique clothing, Kelly. People won't even sell their old clothes thru the front door and the men who buy 'em have to come around thru the alley."

"You put every cent you make on your back," grumbled the House Detective.

"That's why I show a good front," laughed the girl, turning to her typewriter.

INTRA-WALL INSTITUTE.

An Intra-Wall Institute within the walls of the penal institutions of the state to educate and prepare prisoners for a useful return to public life will be the subject of the talk on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Memorial hall in Circleville. Chaplain T. O. Reed and Dr. J. J. Tisdall will outline the idea that has received the sanction of the biggest men in the state. To succeed, the carrying out of the idea must be non-political and the public must be educated thru such talks as this one, to a point where the idea becomes a part of the administration of all penal institutions. This talk is free to the public and every voter and taxpayer will be interested.

NOTORIOUS TRAIN BANDIT HAS MANIA FOR PUBLICITY

Bill Carlisle Modest Hero After Risking Life at Fire.

Cheyenne, Wyo.—Bill Carlisle, the modern West's most notorious train bandit, risked his life at the Wyoming penitentiary the other day fighting a fire that destroyed the prison shirt factory. When the writer called to talk to him about his heroism, he found Bill embroidering pannies on a silk kimono.

He's like that, is Bill—a weird study in contrasts. His lurid career notwithstanding, he is a gentle soul and simple. His career as a bandit has been spectacular, but devoid of any bloodshed save his own. Nothing could drive him to hurt a fellow man.

When Bill made his sortie into the burning factory, he was obeying the same call that led him to become a train bandit. He dotes on the spectacular. He fairly aches for publicity—the spotlight.

That, he says, is why he is in the penitentiary. He didn't rob trains for loot, but for notoriety. Incidentally, he got little of the former, but plenty of the latter. And now that he is in the penitentiary he still is happy whenever he can contrive to break into the news.

Every episode of Bill's outlawry was characterized by his itch for publicity, and equally characterized by his shrinking from hurting others.

He press agented his robberies by sending notification, in advance, that at a certain time, at a certain place, he would rob a certain train. He did it three times before he was caught, meanwhile reveling in an avalanche of publicity. Repeatedly he risked capture to obtain newspapers carrying sensational stories of his crimes.

Finally, run down, sentenced to imprisonment for life, he boasted that he would escape, and immediately rob another train. And he kept that promise.

Assigned to the prison shipping department, he substituted himself for the contents of a packing case that had been filled with shirts, and was carried to freedom by his captors. Within 30 hours he had robbed another train.

Since his recapture he has been tamer, but his hankering for notoriety is undiminished. He says he'll be heard from again, startlingly. He probably will—the spotlight awaits him.

Dirigible Flies 4,500

Miles; Sets New Record

Marseilles, France.—The French airship Dixmude, a super-Zeppelin, recently broke all records for distance and endurance when it landed at the Cuers-Pierrefeu airdrome at 6:46 o'clock in the morning after an uninterrupted voyage of 4,500 miles, lasting 118 hours and 41 minutes.

Leaving Cuers-Pierrefeu at 7:55 o'clock, the giant dirigible made straight across the Mediterranean, flying over Algeria and Tunisia to the outskirts of the Sahara desert. Starting back the next day and meeting with a hurricane over Sardinia, the airship was compelled to turn back to Africa.

The following day the Dixmude started across the Mediterranean northward, flying over Sicily and Corsica. Sighting Toulon, it shifted its course northward to Bordeaux, and then, steering a northeasterly course, flew over Paris in the morning at seven o'clock.

Heading southward once more, the Dixmude passed over Moulins, where it dropped a wreath on the monument to the aviators killed when the dirigible Republique collapsed and crashed there some years ago. The airship was over Nice and Monte Carlo at 11:30 o'clock at night. Skirting the Mediterranean during the night, it landed at its starting point in the morning at daybreak.

The former records for distance and duration of flight were held by the German Zeppelin LZ-120, which flew for 101 hours in July, 1917, and the British dirigible R-31, which flew for 108 hours and 12 minutes in July, 1919.

Negro Named Roosevelt

Fined in Auto Court

New York.—"General Theodore Roosevelt Singleton!" called out the clerk in Jamaica court.

Magistrate Kochendorfer stirred on the bench and the onlookers craned their necks to see the general. So hard did they look for the military personage that they utterly failed to see the little, shabbily-dressed figure of an aged negro man walk meekly up to the bench.

"What army are you a general in?" asked the magistrate.

"Dat's ma first name, White Folks," said the dusky general. "Ise baptized General Theodore Roosevelt Singleton, and I sure is proud of ma name."

"With a name like that," said the judge, "the court feels impelled to exercise leniency. Two dollars fine."

The general was charged with driving an automobile without a license and the fine is usually $25.

Man Pinned to Tree by Bull.

HUNTING SEASON ON.

Hunters and their dogs will be out in force Thursday, November 15. All kinds of guns and ammunition will be used and the woods and fields will ring with the report of rifles and shotguns. Any old blunderbuss will do to shoot cottontails. The season is six weeks, or until January 1. Pheasants can be killed also until November 25, but each hunter is limited to three cock birds. No pheasant hens can be killed during this time limit or at any other time of the year.

FORBES HITS BACK AT ACCUSERS

Blames General Sawyer for Most of His Troubles.

ALSO RAPS ELIAS MORTIMER

Declares That Political Influence Had Been Exerted Both Inside and Outside Veterans' Bureau to Interfere With His Administration of the Bureau—Makes Sweeping Denial of Charges Against Him.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director, made a sweeping denial of accusations brought against him and his administration in the senate investigation of the veterans' bureau.

Forbes charged Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, personal physician to the late President Harding and President Coolidge, with being responsible for the major part of his troubles.

Forbes charged that "Sawyer at one time made a requisition to send into Ohio 20 barrels of whisky" from the Perryville (Md.) supply depot. He said that Elias S. Mortimer had been described to him at the department of justice "as the social and professional bootlegger of Washington." Sawyer and Mortimer are among Forbes' chief accusers in the list of witnesses heard to date.

Political influences had been exerted both inside and outside the bureau to interfere with his administration of the bureau, Forbes asserted. This influence, he declared, came from senators and representatives in congress as well as through other channels.

Forbes defended the purchase of the Livermore (Cal.) and Excelsior Springs (Mo.) hospital sites that have been the subject of vigorous attack, and other hospital transactions that have been brought into question.

In connection with General Sawyer's activities in stopping the Perryville raid, Forbes said: "Sawyer at one time made a requisition to send into Ohio 20 barrels of whisky. He wanted to send 50 cases of this and 100 cases of that—tons of stuff. I've forgotten how much stuff he did want to send to the soldiers' home at Dayton. He was strong for putting the men in soldiers' homes when he couldn't get them in cantonment buildings."

"Did he fill these orders?" Forbes was asked. He replied: "No, I wouldn't permit them to be filled."

Sale of Supplies.

The sale of surplus supplies at Perryville, Md., claimed to be worth $3,000,000, to a Boston salvage concern for 20 cents on the dollar, likewise was defended as a good business deal in the face of the information he had at the time. Forbes vented his feelings before the committee toward certain contractors who unsuccessfully sought to purchase the Perryville supplies. He pointed out one of these, who was present in the committee room, with a sarcastic reference.

In his defense of the Livermore deal, Forbes denied ever having written or having knowledge of a letter purporting to have gone from him to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon strongly urging the purchase of the Livermore site at $150,000. Likewise he denied ever having seen the secretary's reply thereon.

Forbes defended his contract with Matthew O'Brien, San Francisco architect, who received $97,000 for preparing plans that were never used for a hospital at Livermore. He declared O'Brien came to him with endorsements from both senators and the entire house delegation from California. O'Brien's plans, he said, were rejected after he had left the bureau.

Forbes admitted that he had sent the late Charles F. Cramer to California to investigate and recommend a tuberculosis hospital site. He declared he knew nothing of a supposed $150,000 option secured at Cramer's instance for the Livermore site, nor had he ever seen Lucian B. Johnson, former owner of the property, until he came to Washington to testify in this hearing. The bureau bought this property for $105,000.

Forbes denied specifically that he had been asked by President Harding to resign, as charged by General Sawyer.

Two Injured in Fire.

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—Earl Staley, 35, of Canton, was overcome by smoke when fire destroyed the Wheeling and Lake Erie Y. M. C. A. here. Byron Yoder, 41, Canton, suffered injuries when he jumped from the second story of the burning building to the street below.

TREASON CHARGED

General Ludendorff and Adolph Hitler to Face Courtmartial.

Munich, Nov. 14.—Adolph Hitler, Bavarian fascist leader, once an Austrian paperhanger, and General Erich Ludendorff, greatest German military genius of the world war, are to be tried together before special "popular court" on a charge of treason. That was the announcement made in the offices of the Bavarian government. The special court will be organized under the provisions of the martial law. The penalty may be confinement in a fortress, imprisonment or death.

General Ludendorff, now practically interned in his villa, had his telephone cut off. The general made a determined protest, declaring this action curtailing his freedom was a violation of the promises made him when he gave his word of honor. The general told the government that rather than submit to new indignities he would submit himself to arrest and confinement.

MINERS AGAINST PROPOSED MERGER

See Only Three Days a Week Because of Car Shortage.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 14.—Steps to insure steady employment for mine workers in the anthracite field were taken when the tri-district board of the United Mine Workers of America decided to oppose the proposed consolidation of the New York Central, the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Philadelphia and Reading railroads.

The anthracite miners will send protests to Washington in order that the interstate commerce commission may have the views of the hard coal workers before any definite action is taken on the proposal. It is the claim of the miners that if the roads are merged the anthracite fields will work only three days each week because of a shortage of cars.

Thomas Kennedy, president of District No. 7, presented the matter to the tri-district board. He said: "If the consolidation is permitted the mines will be idle three days each week. We know what happened in the soft coal region when cars were not available and we will not allow the same thing to happen here. We are opposed to this consolidation for self-preservation."

To Produce Pictures as Usual.

New York, Nov. 14.—Jesse L. Lasky, vice president of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, announced that the corporation will continue to produce motion pictures as usual. "Some people got the idea that we were not going to make any more pictures," Mr. Lasky said. "There will be no curtailment in production, but there will be a curtailment of waste."

Heroism of nurses and attendants of the Byberry hospital for mental diseases at Philadelphia prevented a catastrophe when fire destroyed a dormitory housing 134 insane women. The nurses led and carried all the patients to safety.

SALES TAX LOOMS AS SOLUTION

Financing of Soldier Bonus Discussed by Solons.

TAX CUTS ALSO FORESEEN

Charge Made by Opponents That the Purpose of Secretary Mellon in Putting Forward His Plan at This Time Was to Create a Situation Which Would Result in Killing the Bonus Measure.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The sales tax loomed up as the logical solution of the problem of tax reduction or a soldier bonus unfunded, as set forth by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in his letter to Representative Green of the ways and means committee.

Through adoption of the sales tax method of raising the money necessary to pay the cost of the bonus, it was pointed out at the capitol, both the benefits of the proposed tax cuts can be enjoyed and the obligation to the nation's defenders fulfilled.

Senator Reed Smoot, slated for the chairmanship of the finance committee, while agreeing in a large part with the Mellon tax reduction program but opposing action now on grounds of political expediency, had this to say on the availability of the sales tax to meet the situation:

"I am opposed to the bonus bill. I have voted against it before. I have stated, however, that I am so anxious to have a sales tax enacted into law that I am willing to vote for the bonus if provision is made for a sales tax to pay the cost. If the sales tax is once tried in United States, it will forever thereafter be a part of our revenue system, and expensive as a bonus bill may be, the establishment of a sales tax in the United States would more than compensate the taxpayers. I shall vote against a bonus bill unless a sales tax is agreed to as a part of the act that will raise sufficient funds to meet the bonus."

Criticize Mellon.

It was openly charged by senators and representatives that the purpose of Secretary Mellon in putting forward his plan at this time was to create a situation which would result in killing the bonus bill. The American Legion, through vice-chairman of its national legislative committee, John Thomas Taylor, made this charge openly in a letter to Representative Green.

Senator Copeland of New York, said: "I favor tax reductions, of course. We all want to relieve the people of just as much of this burden as possible. But we ought to think first of the soldier boys and see that justice is done to them."

It was asserted in authoritative quarters that Secretary Mellon's recommendations do not constitute the administration's program. President Coolidge not only will deal with tax reductions in his forthcoming message to congress, but he is expected to leave to the wisdom of congress the question of passing a bonus bill, if he does not actually recommend it himself.

Like his predecessor, however, Mr. Coolidge is believed certain to impress upon congress the necessity for providing means of financing the adjusted compensations for the fighting men. This will add further to the impetus given the sales tax method.

DONAHEY URGES PROBE

Requests Crabbe to Institute Inquiry in Jefferson County.

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Governor Donahey requested Attorney General Crabbe to institute a special grand jury investigation in Jefferson county as a result of complaints filed with the executive department charging Jefferson county and Steubenville authorities with failure to enforce the dry law.

In his letter to Crabbe, the governor recited that one prohibition officer has been killed, another shot and the home of a third dynamited without there being any prosecutions in any of these cases. He also cited election irregularities and other instances of lax law enforcement. "If these allegations are true it would appear that the administration of justice in Jefferson county has practically broken down," said the governor.

Actress Divorced.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Marjorie Rambaugh, actress, obtained a divorce from Hugh Dillman McCaughy, her actor husband, in just three and a half minutes here. Her charge was desertion.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Boulay Attacks Herrick.

Cincinnati, Nov. 14.—L. A. Boulay, state highway director, sailed into Leon C. Herrick, his Republican predecessor, before the chamber of commerce forum meeting here. Boulay denounced Herrick as a "sniper." He also quoted attacks on his own work in newspapers up to the state, and termed them "deliberate lies." "Most of these fellows are afraid to come into my office and say these things to my face, because if they do they know I will go to the mat with them," he said.

Admits Tattooing Girl.

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—James E. Wild told for the first time his story of the alleged "branding" of Miss Marie Sanko, his ex-sweetheart. Wild is charged with cutting to wound. He said: "I tattooed her, but I did it with a needle, not a knife, and I did it at her request, not by force." According to Miss Sanko, Wild dragged her into a broom factory, stripped off her clothing, slashed his name on her body with a knife, and said, "Now you'll carry my mark to your grave."

Election Irregularities Alleged.

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 14.—Ex-Judge John Goldsberry, acting on behalf of 148 electors of Frankfort, this county, filed protest of alleged irregularities in the recent election in a formal bill of complaint to the Ross county board of elections. Charges included failure to put ballots in the ballot box in the presence of voters; permitting individuals not connected with the board of election to work in the polling place, and failure to post election summary as required by law.

Charges Against Klan Quashed.

Portsmouth, O., Nov. 14.—On a motion made by attorneys for the 244 members of the Ku Klux Klan, who were arrested here Oct. 28 while on parade in defiance of a municipal ordinance, Stanley McCall, municipal court judge, quashed an affidavit charging the klansmen with annoying citizens and congregating in public places. The motion was sustained, it is said, because names were not included in the affidavit.

Truck Owner Held.

Elyria, O., Nov. 14.—Elmer Maloney, Black River township, is being held by Coroner Miles Perry. Maloney is said to have left an auto truck without lights on Lake road. The machine was run into by Dyle Fischer, Vermillion. His wife, Ethel Fischer, 21, was instantly killed.

Slain by Bandit.

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Richard F. Nagle, 45, retired business man of Columbus, was shot and killed between Los Angeles and Culver City, Cal., by two bandits. Edward Nagle, a brother and Culver City real estate man, formerly of Columbus, was slightly wounded.

Bank Robbed.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 14.—Three bandits bound and gagged the teller of the Elm street branch of the Dollar Savings and Trust company here and escaped with $2,000. The teller, James V. Williams, was alone in the building when the robbery occurred.

Injuries Prove Fatal.

Springfield, O., Nov. 14.—Oscar Lefew, 19, New Carlisle, died in a hospital here, of burns received Saturday night when a school bus he was driving was struck and demolished by a Big Four freight train at a crossing in this city.

Three bandits held up a cashier for the Ward Baking company in the vestibule of the company's Brooklyn plant and escaped with a payroll estimated to contain $17,500.

FRENCH TO SPRING ON FRANKFORT

May Cut Rail Lines Connecting Berlin and Munich.

TROOPS AWAIT WORD TO MOVE

Further Advance Into Germany to Be France's Answer to Berlin's Refusal to Permit Resumption of Allied Military Control in Germany—German Experts Studying New Reparations Plan—Developments.

Paris, Nov. 14.—A formidable concentration of men, munitions, tanks and airplanes on the Rhine and in the Ruhr awaits Premier Poincare's command to spring on Frankfort and then advance into Germany until the strategic railway lines connecting Berlin and Munich are cut.

This, according to semi-official statements, will be the French answer to Germany's refusal to permit a resumption of allied military control in Germany.

High diplomats believe it a logical continuation of the policy, beginning with the Ruhr, which is slowly but surely drawing France further and further into Germany until the day must come when the occupation of not only Munich, but the possibility of Berlin, will be a strategic necessity. The intransigent says Germany would be forced to submit within a week.

The reparations commission decided that it would, "as soon as possible," give an audience to German experts who have been studying a new reparations plan. This will probably be within 10 days. Louis Barthou, French chairman of the reparations commission, urged the naming of experts to study Germany's resources and capacity to pay.

STRESEMANN TO GO

General Von Seeckt to Be the Next Dictator of Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 14.—The appointment of General Hans Von Seeckt, commander-in-chief of the reichswehr, as dictator of Germany is expected to be the next development in Germany. President Ebert, it is said, is much disappointed in Chancellor Stresemann and considers the legal parliamentary dictatorship very much a failure. The president is credited with planning to give General Von Seeckt, practically unlimited powers to try to pull the German ship of state off the economic and political rocks. It is expected that Von Seeckt will name a directory of two or three men irrespective of political parties, to assist him. Stresemann's days in authority are now believed to be few.

Galli Curci to Quit Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Mme. Galli Curci has broken with the Chicago Opera company. The announcement was made officially by Lawrence Evans, the noted singer's manager. He explained that her contract with the company will be carried out for this season, but that will be the end. Next season Mme. Galli Curci expects to give all her talent to the Metropolitan Opera company of New York, Mr. Evans stated.

UNCLE SAM'S POSITION

No Interference With Return of Kaiser and Prince to Germany.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The United States will avoid interfering with the return to Germany of the former Kaiser Wilhelm or the former crown prince, it was learned authoritatively at the white house. President Coolidge, it was explained in his behalf, feels that any people have the right to maintain the kind of government it desires without interference from the United States. The United States, in the president's opinion, is in a position entirely different from the one occupied by the allies, who are parties to the treaty of Versailles.

Love Surmounts Prison Walls.

Washington, Nov. 14.—True love surmounted even prison walls when Frederick H. Ewers, 22, married Gladys I. Peyton, 19, who is serving a term of one year in the workhouse for forgery. The wedding was to have taken place last June, but when the girl was arrested the marriage was postponed while Ewers devoted all of his time in an effort to prove the innocence of his fiancée. Finally the girl pleaded guilty to two counts of forgery and the sentence followed. Losing his fight for the freedom of the girl he loved, Ewers then insisted that the marriage take place.

PINCHOT CALLS PARLEY

Would Prevent Extortion in Coal Prices, He Says.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 14.—Governor Pinchot called on the governors of 29 states using anthracite coal to meet with him here on Monday, Nov. 26, to discuss contemplated legislation by the next congress to prevent extortion in coal prices. He outlines no plan, but says he has a program for congressional legislation and state action outlined.

"We do not have to prove the existence of abuses in the anthracite industry," Governor Pinchot told the governors, "or of the crying injustice to consumers in extortionate prices."

The governor says that the coal operators have finally declined to "clean its own house of extortion," which he says "elementary common sense" should have led them to do. "They could, if they would, not only give the consumer a square deal, but free their industry from public condemnation," Governor Pinchot says of the operators, who have refused to accede to his request to shut off the supply of coal to dealers charging more than 1922 prices.

Cattle Roundup in New York Streets.

New York, Nov. 14.—The great wide west never saw such a stampede and roundup as was witnessed in the canyons of Manhattan when 12 steers, destined for Tex Rickard's show, broke from their pens. Taxicabs of all colors and stripes, limousines and tugsboats took part in the chase. Policemen and civilians vied with the cowboys for the roundup honors. The chase covered a wide area.

TORY DEFEAT SEEN

Tariff Reform Issue Rouses Liberal and Labor Parties.

London, Nov. 14.—Premier Baldwin signed the death warrant of the Conservative government when he announced the dissolution of parliament on Friday. This is the general opinion of unbiased political experts in London. The only argument the Tory leaders advanced in favor of an immediate election is the supposed unpreparedness of the Liberal and Labor parties to fight them on the tariff reform issue, but it is declared incontrovertibly that the Conservatives are equally unprepared. As disclosed, the polling will take place Dec. 6. It will then probably be found that the Liberal party, under Herbert Asquith, will have a working majority, perhaps by virtue of an understanding with the Labor party.

Fire Attacks Dairy Plant.

Toledo, Nov. 14.—Twelve girls were led to safety from a basement room in a fire at the Ohio Dairy company's plant. The fire started when an asphalt compound used in calking cork in a refrigerator room on the first floor ignited. Five thousand chickens were smothered to death in the fire. The total loss is estimated at $20,000.

Surprised by liquor bandits, five watchmen at the Gwynn Brook distillery, Baltimore county, Md., were overpowered and bound by raiders who then stole 133 barrels of whiskey from the warehouse.

Picturesque New Zealand.
New Zealand is a land of mountains, gorges, rivers and fjords. The higher peaks of the south island are eternally snow capped and the glaciers of its southern Alps rival those of Switzerland. The surrounding seas are too cold for corals. Among the mountains of the north island volcanic fires are still active and the geysers and hot springs are little less impressive than those of the Yellowstone park.

Egg-Eating Snakes.
A queer African species of snake, which lives on eggs, has a toothlike spike projecting downward from its backbone, just behind the head, which is tipped with enamel. When it swallows an egg the latter passes down the gullet until it encounters the spike, which breaks the shell. Thus no part of the fluid contents is lost, as would be the case if the snake were obliged to bite the egg with its mouth-fangs.

Hard Times.
Montagu Collet Norman, governor of the Bank of England, was talking at a dinner in Washington, about hard times.
"I heard a story the other day," he said, "about a slum landlord who was going around one morning collecting his rents. At a certain house a boy handed him half a crown."
"Half a crown!" said the landlord reproachfully. "Here you are, over five quid in arrears, and you only give me half a crown!"
"Oh, go on about your business," said the boy. "You wouldn't have got that if the old man hadn't been and sold the kitchen door."

An Age of Specialists.
"Tis an age of specialists," remarked Mr. Tenspot from his back porch. "Of concentration, so to speak. Even the vegetable kingdom seems to be aware of this tendency of the times."
His neighbors sent him an inquiring glance which he accepted as a signal to continue.
"At least my peach tree seems to be lavishing all its resourcefulness upon one peach."

Evidence Stork Had Traveled.
Julia had been over to see the neighbor's new baby and upon her return was asked how she liked it, to which she replied: "Well, mother, it is all right, only the stork must have been a long time on the way with it, for it certainly is awfully plump."

PAUSE AND REFLECT

When Something is Offered for Nothing. Or Where an Extra Profit is Offered Above What is Economically Safe.

More than a hundred years have passed since Benjamin Franklin penned this warning. Yet, what a good motto it is today.

There are still in our midst those who would have us forget that value received and price paid must always balance. In the long run, however, people don't forget. We are building for the future. Conservatism, careful judgment and careful statement were valued yesterday, are valued today and will be valued tomorrow.

Tough on Daddy.
Daddy was confined to the house with Spanish influenza, and mother was busy sterilizing the dishes which had come from the sick-room.
"Why do you do that?" asked four-year-old Donald.
"Because, dear, poor daddy has germs, and the germs get on the dishes. I boil them, and that kills all the horrid germs."
Donald turned this over in his mind for several minutes. Then: "Mother, why don't you boil daddy?"

Rival to Monte Carlo.
Helgoland, the little island in the North sea, seeks the laurels and income of Monte Carlo.
The island resort is about to build a gambling casino, which, it is hoped, will bring sufficient earnings to the local government to make all the island folks free from taxation, just as the residents of Monaco, the principality where the Monte Carlo casino is located, are free from taxes.
This is to all intents and purposes a declaration of war by Germany against France, so far as getting the tourist gambling business of Europe is concerned.
Helgoland has always been a favorite resort, largely patronized because of its beach. Now, in addition, the local government plans to erect a casino which will draw a new and wealthier class to its shores.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HARTMAN THEATER

The first of the great metropolitan girl-and-music annuals to be seen in Columbus this season is the Greenwich Village Follies. The new fourth edition of this picturesque and refreshingly artistic revue will be on display at the Hartman theater Columbus for a single week starting Monday night, November 12. Last season it was conceded to be the revue hit of New York where it played for 32 weeks at the Shubert theater. For the past weeks it has been a soaring success at the Apollo theater, Chicago, and it comes to Columbus direct from that city in a special train of eight cars. Three of the Greenwich Village series have already exhibited in Columbus to enthusiastic audiences and this newest version is reputed to surpass all its predecessors in gaiety, wit, pictorial and melodic excellence.

The fine enthusiasm and youthful buoyancy which marks the deportment of the current "Follies" can be credited to the artistry and imaginative genius of its creator, John Murray Anderson. Anderson is said to have the best eye for color and grouping of any of our stage producers, a claim well substantiated in the present "Follies." A novelty constructed and adroitly schemed revue is this "Follies," with song, dance and japey interlaced in a happy and fleetly moving picture.

It burlesques Balleff and Chauve Souris, goes back to the days of Tony Pastor for a comic bout with the illustrated songs of that period ascends to high art in a reproduction of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" and an interpretation of Oscar Wilde's "The Nightingale and the Rose," becomes precariously modern in a humorous sketch "Life Among the Advertisements," and all in all runs an amazing long gamut of diversified entertainment.

Mr. Anderson has summoned an imposing list of players under his gay banner to compete in the "Follies." Prominent among them is Carl Randall, Karyl Norman, "The Creole Fashion Plate," Ula Sharon, George Rasely, John Sheehan, Dorothy Neville, Ethel Davis, Julia Silvers, Marjorie Peterson, George Christie, Louis and Frieda Berkoff, Fortunella and Cirillino, Clifton and DeRex and Chase and LaTour and the thirty famous artists' models.

The book of the "Follies" is by George V. Hobart, with contributions from George B. Kaufman and William K. Wells. The music is by Louis A. Hirsch and the lyrics by John Murray Anderson and Irving Caesar. Conspicuous among these last and well known are "Sixty Seconds Every Minute" and "Sweetheart Lane."

The Greenwich Village Follies is said to move with flawless pace and happy temp, flouting all the blueprints and traditions of the stage and providing ample recreation for the eye as well as regaling the ear.

Mail orders from out of town people will be given careful consideration if addressed to the Hartman boxoffice accompanied by check or money order

DIED OF BURNS

Mrs. Dwight Smith Passed Away at Chillicothe Hospital.

Mrs. Dwight Smith, aged 19, was horribly burned Monday morning at her home near South Bloomingville and died at the city hospital, Chillicothe, the same evening at 11:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Smith had arisen early to prepare breakfast and while frying eggs some of the grease spattered out of the pan and this set her garments on fire. Her husband, hearing her cries jumped out of bed and ran to her rescue. He grabbed her burning clothing and tore it off, but the fire had seared her body so badly that there was little hopes of saving her life. The deceased leaves a babe six weeks of age. Mrs. Smith was Miss Della Paxton before her marriage. Her husband was a former resident of this county. He is a son of Luther Smith, who lived on a farm near the Earnhart hill.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Farmers Have Organized to Break Up Profitable Business.

Farmers in the vicinity of Lockbourne and in Harrison, Madison and Walnut townships are up in arms over the depredations of chicken thieves.

Within the past few days many hundreds of choice fowls have been stolen one man, William Creager, having lost over five hundred. Many hen houses have been visited and whole flocks have disappeared.

The whole country is stirred up over the matter and an effective organization has been formed. The roads are being patrolled and the owners of the poultry have decided to shoot, and shoot to kill or maim the miscreants.

Her Cordial Indorsement.
Elva was left alone with grandma for the day. An aunt, upon her return, said, "Did you have a nice day, Elva?" "O yes," she replied. "I had a fine day—grandma just minded me perfectly."

TEARS UP OLD MEXICAN TOWN FOR SILVER PAVING

Material Is Run Through Mills and Made to Yield Rich Returns in Metal.

Buildings and streets in the one-time famous mining town of Catorce, Mexico, are being torn up and the material in them run through mills and made to yield rich returns in silver. There is also a revival of mining operations in a number of the old properties. For more than two centuries the mines of Catorce were the largest producers of silver in Mexico. The dumps of the old mines are rich in silver values. One of these dumps which is now being worked over is estimated to contain more than one million dollars silver, which may be obtained by modern processes of extraction.

The history of the Catorce mines dates into the legendary past. There is a vague story of fourteen robbers who used the mountain for a stronghold. The quaintness and inaccessibility of the ancient town has surrounded it with a halo not possessed by any other place in the republic. Like the two other of the famous trio of old Mexican silver mines, Guanajuato and Zacatecas, Catorce is situated in a cup in the mountains not unlike a funnel. The roof at one house is the patio of the next. There is no wheeled vehicle in the town. A long tunnel through the mountain serves as a highway for the bringing out of the ores, and through this tunnel there is a mule power tramway.

TO OPEN HOUSE OF MYSTERY

Owner of $5,000,000 San Jose Mansion Will Exhibit Strange Home. The $5,000,000 House of Mystery, built at San Jose, Calif., by Mrs. Sarah Winchester, widow of William Wirt Winchester, multimillionaire and beneficiary of the millions of the Winchester Arms company, is to be thrown open to the world.

Its 240 rooms, connecting by secret panels and hidden entrances, will be shown—at a price—to all who apply.

For a dozen years after her husband's death Mrs. Winchester resided here in almost complete seclusion, surrounded by a few trusted Hindu servants and practicing the rites of a strange religious cult. She said the spirit of William Wirt Winchester told her to come to California and there to build a home in which she must remain secluded. So long as the clang of the hammer and rasp of the saw was heard about this place she would live, but when nothing was left to construct or change she would die.

Many sections were built, torn down and rebuilt under Mrs. Winchester's personal direction, with a total disregard of expense. For two years after her death the place stood unoccupied, then was sold at auction. Although the estimated cost was $5,000,000, the house, 500 feet long and half as wide, with a seven-story tower in the middle, brought only $35,000. Each suite inside is furnished in a style of a different country or period.

WARNING ON 100,000,000 FAGS

Sweden Fights Cigarette Fire Peril After $2,000,000 Blaze.

The "two-million-dollar cigarette" is one of the main arguments advanced in the present nation-wide drive in Sweden to prevent fires through the careless throwing away of cigarettes, undertaken by the Fire Prevention society.

Some time ago a lighted cigarette, thrown carelessly down by a youth in a sawmill, started a fire which was not extinguished until nearly $2,000,000 worth of property had been destroyed. Other large fires have been started in the same way.

The Fire Prevention society suggested to the Swedish Tobacco monopoly, which controls the output of cigarettes in Sweden, to print the warning, "Kill your cigarette when you are through with it," upon every package. The executives of the monopoly immediately agreed.

According to estimates, the slogan will be printed on nearly 100,000,000 wrappers within a year.

RADIO USED TO CATCH FISH

English Vessels Call Other Ships When Shoal Is Large.

American fishermen off the Grand Banks and the Atlantic coast may find it profitable to emulate the example of their brother fishermen in England, who have equipped their vessels with radio. The purpose is to enable them to communicate with the shore or with sister trawlers whenever they discover a shoal of fish too large for their capacity. At a time when a remarkable shortage of fish is reported from the North sea, some thirty steam trawlers have been fitted with wireless apparatus.

It has been found that with the use of radio communication, huge hauls, which otherwise would certainly be missed, can be taken in a short time by vessels which are in constant communication with each other and with the shore.

AMUSEMENTS

William de Mille's latest Paramount production, "Only 38," had a highly successful premier at the Met theater last night.

Mrs. Stanley (Lois Wilson) a widow of thirty-eight, whose youth was extinguished by her hide-bound husband, on the latter's death decides to get as much joy out of life as possible and so encourages the attentions of Professor Giddings, played by Elliott Dexter. Her daughter, Lucy (May McAvoy) is in love with Sidney Johnson, a young college student. Instead of the emphasis being laid on the youthful love story it is laid up on that of the mother. Her struggle for happiness is played against a background of opposition from her children. At length, yielding to the children's ideas, she renounces her youth and love. But the daughter's own love affair opens her eyes and paves the way to a happy conclusion for both.

The featured players in "Only 38" include May McAvoy, Lois Wilson, Elliott Dexter and George Fawcett. In the support are Robert Agnew, Jane Keckley, Lillian Leighton, and others. The story is full of heart interest and there is a clever mingling of pathos and comedy throut. The love story of a woman who feels that she is old, played in contrast to the love story of her daughter, is most appealing. "Only 38" is a picture every fan can see with profit and complete enjoyment.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Harrison Weakley Passed Away at Home of His Daughter Tuesday.

Harrison Weakley died Tuesday morning at ten minutes past twelve o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George List, in Jackson township. The deceased had been seriously ill the past four months of heart trouble and the past four weeks was unable to leave his bed.

He was a Civil war veteran having served in company K, 17th O. V. I. He was born in Fairfield county, November 29, 1839 and was the son of Thomas and Mary Cook Weakley.

One son and two daughters survive. They are A. H. Weakley, of Kokomo, Indiana; Mrs. George List, of Jackson township and Mrs. Omer Marks, of Lancaster. Of his immediate family there is living one sister, Mrs. John Kemmerer, of Lancaster.

The funeral services will be held Thursday, November 15, at 2 o'clock at the Evangelical church at Stoutsville. Interment in Maple Hill cemetery.

HARTMAN THEATER

"The World's greatest show; Bigger and Brighter than ever," was a slogan adopted and made famous by Amrica's greatest tent showman. It is one that can be truthfully and justly taken over by Wagenhals & Kemper for their production of "The Bat" which they present the week of November 19, at the Hartman theater, Columbus.

"The Bat" has earned the title of the world's greatest show by smashing every known record for a dramatic production on four continents and in seven different countries. It has been played with equal success in eleven languages and has delighted one president, two kings and five queens, along with plenty of other royalty mixed in with 9,000,000 persons who have seen this Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood masterpiece to date, with no signs of the play's popularity diminishing. It is "bigger" than ever because since it played over two years in New York, a year each in London and Chicago and a season each in Boston and Philadelphia, "The Bat" has shattered over 3,000 other records thruout the United states and Canada. It is "better" than ever for Wagenhals & Kemper are sending a special cast for this engagement. The cast coming to the Hartman is the one that will play New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Boston later this season for return engagement. It is "brighter" for the simple reason that a brand new production has been provided in view of metropolitan return engagements.

The cast includes five of the members of famous special "Big Cities" company with five other augmentations. The old members are Julia Stuart, Ursula Ellsworth, Charles Gott hold, Robert Ranous, Albert Lawrence Harold Heaton and Ben H. Roberts. This is now the most important organization dispensing the laughs, thrills and sensational mystery now made historic in the theater by "The Bat". One of the most astonishing features of the play's record is the popularity of this hit this present season. It seems to be increasing, rather than diminishing as was anticipated by the producers. In several instances "The Bat" has broken its own previous high records this season on return presentations; and in almost every instance has equalled the high marks set the first and second engagements played in various cities. In view of the productions from theatrical wiseacres that a mystery play could not survive a single year, this is even more amazing. "The Bat" has already piled up more profits and royalty than was ever dreamed of for one play prior to its appearance. And now it seems to have only begun an everlasting career. That its merit as an entertainment is unbounded is indicated by the delight with which it is viewed a second or third time. "Repeat" members of the jammed theaters are the most enthusiastic units of the record audiences.

Self Neglected.

Little Eva was invited out to dinner with her father and mother. Before starting, her parents made her understand that she must not speak unless spoken to. All went well at first, but after some time, no notice being taken of her, Eva began to get uneasy. Finally, the hostess, seeing that something was wrong, asked her what she would like next. "I would like to have you begin to ask me questions!" was the polite reply.

What Dropped.

The dining room of a very exclusive residential hotel. Dinner in full swing. Clatter of knives and forks and the usual buzz of conversation. Suddenly, a crash at one end of the room, a sound of falling dishes. An abrupt pause in the conversation, attention concentrated on the scene of the calamity. Then, suddenly, soaring above a rising murmur of inquiry, one clear voice with the desired information, "Squash, my dear, of all things!"

Alton Covell, 15, Marshfield, Ore., confessed murdering his stepmother, claiming he had been directed to commit the crime by his helplessly crippled uncle, Arthur Covell. The uncle is a nationally known astrologer. The boy said his uncle read the planets and ordered the murder.

Snakes' Changes of Skin.

It appears that snakes change their skins several times a year before reaching the adult state. The main reason why snakes cast their skins is to provide for increased growth. The skin of a snake does not grow with the growth of the body, as is the case with warm blooded creatures. So when it begins to get too tight it is discarded.

THE WONDER OF THE AGE

THE HOT BLAST AIR TIGHT FLORENCE

NO SMOKE! NO SOOT! NO DIRT! NO CLINKERS! EVERYTHING IS CONSUMED.

At the end of the season's use with soft coal, there will be no soot in the pipe or flue

The Zenith of Stove Perfection

The only jointless leg bottom and base with full radiation and large ash pan that is on the market! or has ever been made in the history of the stove industry.

The jointless leg bottom and base makes the stove air-tight below the grate, which is the only true fire keeping principle.

It will be as good a fire keeper twenty years hence as it is today.

The Hot Blast Air-Tight Florence will heat twice the space that can be heated by any other stove on earth at one-half the cost.

The only perfect floor heater that is or has ever been made.

All features are patented and no stove manufacturer, dealer or user can copy or use same until the expiration of the patent without incurring liability for an action for damages.

THE HOT BLAST AIR-TIGHT FLORENCE burns soft coal or slack and all the smoke and gases. No filling up of the stove, pipe or flue with soot. No dirt inside or outside the house. It will burn hard coal and all the gases which escape from the hard coal base burner. It will burn wood and sawdust, wet or dry. It will produce one-half less ashes than any other stove on earth with any kind of fuel and leave no clinkers or half consumed fuel.

Wanted It Understood.

In the bygone days when street car fares were 5 cents for grownups and 3 cents for children under 12, two small boys of 12 and 7 mounted the platform. The younger boy had been promised the 2 cents change from the dime they had for carfare. He handed the coin to the conductor, who did not immediately turn over the pennies. The anxious child then remarked politely but forcefully, "I'm worth only 3 cents."—Chicago Tribune.

Stymied at Lunch.

Golf is a game that has a special vocabulary of its own, and beginners are at first a little at sea with regard to the meaning of some of the terms. You are "stymied," for example, when your opponent's ball lies directly in the path your own ball must take in order to drop into the hole. The Tatler says:

A gentleman was playing on a certain links in Scotland when he turned to his caddie and said: "I say, caddie, why couldn't that fellow get his ball into the hole?"

"He was stymied, sir," was the reply.

"He was what?"

"He was stymied, sir," repeated the caddie.

"Oh, was he?" replied the other: "I thought he looked rather funny at lunch."—Youth's Companion.

London Lawyers Hard Hit.

"The worst legal year on record," is given as the London lawyer's opinion of the last twelvemonths and more barristers than ever are said to be looking for a livelihood elsewhere than in the courts. General hard times lead the potential plaintiffs and defendants to settle their differences without the assistance of wigs and gowns, or, if they cannot settle it, they let the difference lie.

In spite of a common and old opinion that money flies as naturally to a lawyer's pockets as steel filings do to a magnet, the "flowing fees" of the bar at all times direct themselves chiefly to certain larger and more notable pools.

The emoluments of the great majority of barristers would rouse no great envy even in normal times; when a slump comes (and the big pools must still be fed) the smaller receptacles are in danger of running dry, indeed.—Manchester Guardian.

NEW FIRM

Harold Rader and Glenn L. Myers
Form a Partnership.

Glenn L. Myers and Harold B. Rader have purchased the interest of P. F. Mooney in the firm of Myers & Mooney, funeral directors and dealers in musical instruments. The firm in the future will be known as Myers & Rader.

They will still continue to render an efficient service in funeral work and they also will sell the Edison phonograph.

Mr. Myers was reared at Mt. Sterling and at the present time he operates one of the largest funeral establishments in Columbus, being located at 23 West Goodale street.

Mr. Rader was reared at Fox post-office, near this city, and was employed by Mr. Myers in his Columbus office before the firm of Myers & Mooney was established in April of this year, since when he has been very active in the interest of the partnership. It is the aim of this institution to render valuable service.

Mr. Mooney will remain with Myers & Rader as salesman for musical instruments.

Hotel Stenographer

BY ROE FULKERSON

"Kelly," said the Hotel Stenographer, "you better walk down the hall to that big mirror, and give yourself the up-and-down."

"Smatter with me?" asked the House Detective.

"Your pants," replied the girl, "are as baggy at the knees that you look like you had squatted to jump over something. Your necktie has whiskers on it, and there are wrinkles in your coatsleeves."

"But clothes cost money, and I am trying to save. I am poor," replied Kelly.

"Kelly, nobody ever saw a tightwad who wasn't poor. There is something about a nicker-nurser, Kelly, that keeps him poor. He is so close with the present dime that the future dollar gets away from him."

"If you are poor and want to get rich, Kelly, you've got to put up a front. People flock to a prosperous person, just like morning glory vines reach out for a sunflower stalk to climb. If you want to get prosperous you've got to ooze prosperity from every pore and pimple, whether you have it or not."

"Ninety-nine people out a hundred are likely to take you at your own estimate of yourself. If you look like ready money they think you've got it and will trust you with more of it."

"Instead of looking like the first year of a boom town, you look like the last days of Pompeii. People collect every kind of antique, except, antique clothing, Kelly. People won't even sell their old clothes thru the front door and the men who buy 'em have to come around thru the alley."

"You put every cent you make on your back," grumbled the House Detective.

"That's why I show a good front," laughed the girl, turning to her typewriter.

INTRA-WALL INSTITUTE.

An Intra-Wall institute within the walls of the penal institutions of the state to educate and prepare prisoners for a useful return to public life will be the subject of the talk on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Memorial hall in Circleville. Chaplain T. O. Reed and Dr. J. J. Tisdall will outline the idea that has received the sanction of the biggest men in the state. To succeed, the carrying out of the idea must be non-political and the public must be educated thru such talks as this one, to a point where the idea becomes a part of the administration of all penal institutions.

This talk is free to the public and every voter and taxpayer will be interested.

W. C. T. U.

NOTORIOUS TRAIN BANDIT HAS MANIA FOR PUBLICITY

Bill Carlisle Modest Hero After Risking Life at Fire.

Cheyenne, Wyo.—Bill Carlisle, the modern West's most notorious train bandit, risked his life at the Wyoming penitentiary the other day fighting a fire that destroyed the prison shirt factory. When the writer called to talk to him about his heroism, he found Bill embroidering pannies on a silk kimono.

He's like that, is Bill—a weird study in contrasts. His lurid career notwithstanding, he is a gentle soul and simple. His career as a bandit has been spectacular, but devoid of any bloodshed save his own. Nothing could drive him to hurt a fellow man. When Bill made his sortie into the burning factory, he was obeying the same call that led him to become a train bandit. He dotes on the spectacular. He fairly aches for publicity—the spotlight.

That, he says, is why he is in the penitentiary. He didn't rob trains for loot, but for notoriety. Incidentally, he got little of the former, but plenty of the latter. And now that he is in the penitentiary he still is happy whenever he can contrive to break into the news.

Every episode of Bill's outlawry was characterized by his itch for publicity, and equally characterized by his shrinking from hurting others.

He press agented his robberies by sending notification, in advance, that at a certain time, at a certain place he would rob a certain train. He did it three times before he was caught, meanwhile reveling in an avalanche of publicity. Repeatedly he risked capture to obtain newspapers carrying sensational stories of his crimes.

Finally, run down, sentenced to imprisonment for life, he boasted that he would escape, and immediately rob another train. And he kept that promise.

Assigned to the prison shipping department, he substituted himself for the contents of a packing case that had been filled with shirts, and was carried to freedom by his captors. Within 30 hours he had robbed another train.

Since his recapture he has been tamer, but his hankering for notoriety is undiminished. He says he'll be heard from again, startlingly. He probably will—the spotlight awaits him.

Dirigible Flies 4,500

Miles; Sets New Record

Marseilles, France.—The French airship Dixmude, a super-Zeppelin, recently broke all records for distance and endurance when it landed at the Cuers-Pierrefeu airdrome at 6:46 o'clock in the morning after an uninterrupted voyage of 4,500 miles, lasting 118 hours and 41 minutes.

Leaving Cuers-Pierrefeu at 7:55 o'clock, the giant dirigible made straight across the Mediterranean, flying over Algeria and Tunisia to the outskirts of the Sahara desert. Starting back the next day and meeting with a hurricane over Sardinia, the airship was compelled to turn back to Africa.

The following day the Dixmude started across the Mediterranean northward, flying over Sicily and Corsica. Sighting Toulon, it shifted its course northward to Bordeaux, and then, steering a northeasterly course, flew over Paris in the morning at seven o'clock.

Heading southward once more, the Dixmude passed over Moulins, where it dropped a wreath on the monument to the aviators killed when the dirigible Republique collapsed and crashed there some years ago. The airship was over Nice and Monte Carlo at 11:30 o'clock at night. Skirting the Mediterranean during the night, it landed at its starting point in the morning at daybreak.

The former records for distance and duration of flight were held by the German Zeppelin LZ-120, which flew for 101 hours in July, 1917, and the British dirigible R-31, which flew for 108 hours and 12 minutes in July, 1919.

Negro Named Roosevelt

Fined in Auto Court

New York.—"General Theodore Roosevelt Singleton!" called out the clerk in Jamaica court.

Magistrate Kochendorfer stirred on the bench and the onlookers craned their necks to see the general. So hard did they look for the military personage that they utterly failed to see the little, shabbily-dressed figure of an aged negro man walk meekly up to the bench.

"What army are you a general in?" asked the magistrate.

"Dat's ma first name, White Folks," said the dusky general. "Ise baptized General Theodore Roosevelt Singleton, and I sure is proud of ma name."

"With a name like that," said the judge, "the court feels impelled to exercise leniency. Two dollars fine."

The general was charged with driving an automobile without a license and the fine is usually $25.

Man Pinned to Tree by Bull.

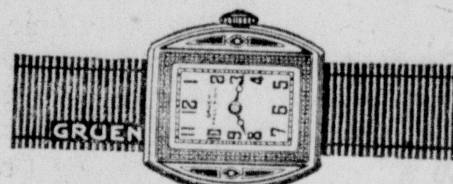

Savannah, Ga.—With one hand pinned to a tree by the animal's horn, Frank Cleary, a farmer living near here, saved himself from a mud bull by kicking. He shoved his foot into the animal's face. The bull backed in fright, and Cleary leaped over a fence to safety.

HUNTING SEASON ON.

Hunters and their dogs will be out in force Thursday, November 15. All kinds of guns and ammunition will be used and the woods and fields will ring with the report of rifles and shotguns. Any old blunderbuss will do to shoot cottontails. The season is six weeks, or until January 1. Pheasants can be killed also until November 25, but each hunter is limited to three cock birds. No pheasant hens can be killed during this time limit or at any other time of the year.

STILL THEY COME

Sheriff Robert Young received two more guests for safekeeping Tuesday evening sent here from Columbus by Judge Sater, of the federal court. Both prisoners are liquor violators. They are Dorminnie Samma and James Daugherty. Samma will serve three months and Daugherty five months.
